NDPG: Invitation to TTRI Informal Session (Financial and Economic Appraisal of a Township Project)

Dear Colleague

You are invited to an informal discussion dealing with financial and economic appraisal of a township project. The case study under review is nJoli Square, in the township of KwaZakhele.

Your hosts are National Treasury (with Nelson Mandela Bay Metropolitan Municipality).

Agenda
1	Registration and Welcome	08h30 to 09h00
1	Presentation of project overview by Nelson Mandela Bay Metropolitan Municipality	09h00 to 09h20
2	Appraisal undertaken (methodology, outcomes) by National Treasury	09h20 to 09h45
3	Tea	0945 to 10h00
4	Discussion and debate	10h00 to 11h00

Target audience: Especially senior municipal officers with a close relationship to urban and/or township development projects. Even though it is intended to be a fun session, it is helpful if the attendee has had some exposure to accounting, economics (welfare economics and micro economics), project costing, performance measurement and financial modeling.

Venue: Boardroom 0103, 1st Floor, 240 Vermeulen Street, Pretoria

Date: Thursday, 28 February between 09h00 - 11h00,

Session Outcomes: An understanding of the complexity of the calculation of financial and economic benefits of urban development projects. Can more thorough evaluations assist in project packaging and investment leverage? Is the thinking presented relevant? How can it be incorporated in other NDPG (Neighbourhood Development Partnership Grant) projects for other TTRI members?

RSVP is vital asap as space is very limited and strictly on a first-come-first-served basis. Please respond to Suvashna Singh by returning the following information by e-mail to Suvashna.Singh@Treasury.gov.za or by fax to 012 315 5779.
